

UNITED STATES Dressage FEDERATION

Adequan/USDF All-Breeds Award Program

Participating Organization Declaration Information

Please complete this form in its entirety and enclose the requested information.

1. Name of Participating Organization: _____

2. Does this Participating Organization issue breed papers?

YES

NO

3. If you answered NO to question 2, please list the breed registry papers recognized and accepted by your organization. Please note: In order for a horse to be declared for the USDF All-Breeds Award Program, the owner must provide official breed registry papers. Therefore, as a Participating Organization in the All-Breeds program, you are required to either issue papers or require breed registry papers from another registry that you represent.

4. If you answered YES to question 2, does your registry also officially represent another breed registry or accept horses into your registry from another registry or organization?

YES

NO

5. If you answered YES to question 4, please list all additional breed registries or organizations represented or accepted by your organization and whether they issue papers or certificates of pedigree. Please note: In order for a horse to be declared for the All-Breeds Award Program, the owner must provide official breed registry papers. Therefore, as a Participating Organization in the USDF All-Breeds program, you are required to either issue papers or require breed registry papers from another registry or organization that you represent..

6. Does your breed registry accept or issue certificates of pedigree?

YES

NO

If you answered YES, does your breed registry allow horses with a certificate of pedigree to participate in the all-breeds program?

YES

NO

If you answered YES to both questions in #6, please list which certificates of pedigree you allow.

Please enclose examples of all acceptable breed registry papers or certificates of pedigree issued by your breed registry or by any other breed, color, or performance registry that you represent or accept into your registry.

For more information on all-breeds declarations, please refer to USDF Policies and Procedures on the USDF Web site.

Questions on the declaration process can be directed to horseregistration@usdf.org.